

LATE-GRADUATING STUDENTS

Orientation and support for late-graduating students.

The Faculty of Humanities and Philosophy established a help desk to assist late-graduating students.

Contact us if you are having issues related to your education.

We are available to:

Help you understand the opportunities and services offered by the Faculty;

Direct you towards services dedicated to students needing specialised support, such as tutoring for students with specific learning difficulties, methodological tutoring, and psychological counselling.

Person in charge: Dr Richard Bourelly.

You may contact him via email at:
